MAY SOLVE MYSTERY

OF HEADLESS BODY

Providence, R. I., Nov. 11.—In the trial of Henri Deslovers, which was begun in the superior court here today, the authorities hope to solve the mystery of the headless woman murder which has remained unsolved for nearly six months. On June 25 last some workmen discovered the headless body of a woman tied with a rope and weighted with rocks floating in the Blackstone river near Woonsocket. Every effort to find the missing head, without which positive identification was almost impossible, proved futile.

Investigation led to the conclusion that the body was that of Angelo Delmarie, who had disappeared mysteriously shortly before the nude body was found floating in the river. As a result of those investigations the man Deslovers, a Franco-Belgian yarn spinner with whom the Delmarie woman lived, was taken into custody a few days after the finding of the body. He pleaded not guilty, but at a hearing on July 27, he was held without bail for trial.

It was the supposition of the police that the murder of the woman had been committed somewhere in Woonsocket and the dismembered remains carried to the river and sunk. But the mystery as to the place of the crime remains as dark as that relating to the disposition of the woman's head. So far as is known the only tangible evidence connecting Deslovers with the murder is that he was seen to be walking toward the river with the woman on the night that she is supposed to have met her death.

Detectives specially employed by Governor Pethier to work on the case recently arrested Mr. and Mrs. Deslovers' home at the time of the disappearance of Mrs. Delmarie. Both protest their innocence, declaring that they know absolutely nothing of the circumstances surrounding the movements of the victim of the murder before she left her home.

CLEAR MAJORITY FOR

CAMPBELL RUSSELL'S BILL

Oklahoma City, Nov. 11.—The state board of agriculture is recalled. Campbell Russell's long fight has met the approval of an overwhelming large number of the electorate of Oklahoma.

Thirty-nine complete counties on file with the state election board Saturday night showed a vote of 72,448 for the Russell bill to a vote of 26,522 for the board. The total electoral vote in these thirty-nine counties was 113,329 so that the "yes" vote for the bill not only tripled the "no" vote but carries a majority of 16,784 over the silent vote as well. Every county reporting gives a heavy majority for the bill.

DEMOCRATIC SENATOR FROM OREGON SETTLES CONTROL

Washington, Nov. 9.—The positive announcement of the success of Harry Lane, the democratic candidate for the senate in Oregon, assures democratic control of the upper house of congress and places both branches of the national legislature and the presidency in their hands for the first time in eighteen years. The addition of Oregon to the democratic list gives that party forty-nine senators, or a majority of two.

In addition to the election of successors to democratic senators now sitting, democrats will displace republican senators from Oregon, New Jersey, Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Delaware and Nevada and will fill the vacancy in Colorado with a man of their choosing.

The contests in Illinois, where two senators are to be chosen, and in Tennessee and Michigan remain to be decided. The democrats make positive claims concerning some of the states, but whatever the result in any or all of them, democratic control of the senate is assured and the democrats will be able to shape legislation if harmony prevails among them.

Greeks Capture Saloniki.

Athens, Greece, Nov. 9.—The Greek army, commanded by Crown Prince Constantine, occupied Saloniki, the Turkish stronghold in Southwestern Turkey in Europe at noon today.

The Greek capital was illuminated this evening in celebration of the fall of the Turkish stronghold of Saloniki. Services of praise were held in various churches.

Details of the battle of Yenidje received here today from Volo show that 30,000 Turkish troops were engaged. Fighting lasted throughout the morning and ended in favor of the Greeks. Two divisions attacked the Turks in the rear and gave a decisive turn to the battle.

AN ERROR IN

ELECTION FIGURES

In Saturday's paper a very bad error occurred in the figures on the sheriff's race, J. S. Cannon being credited with 1843 votes, or within twenty-four of L. E. Mitchell. The figures should have been 1343.

The News had the figures right but a slight error was made in setting them up and was marked by the proof reader. In setting the line a second time the compositor made a worse error than at first.

CRUCE ISSUES A

REQUISITION FOR AKIN

Oklahoma City, Nov. 11.—Governor Cruce has issued a requisition for Oliver H. Akin, wanted in Norman on a complaint signed by J. R. Holland, alleging that Akin obtained property under false pretense. It is claimed that Akin bought goods at the store of Holland giving a check on the bank at Moore for $26.76. The goods amounting to $17. It is alleged that Akin had no money in the bank when he gave the check.

Akin was located in Los Angeles, Cal. Sheriff I. B. Sale of Cleveland came to Oklahoma City with pictures of Akin and went to the different rail road offices showing the pictures of Akin to the ticket agents. Finally one remembered the face from an incident that happened when Akin bought his ticket to leave. The agent and Akin had a misunderstanding about the change in the ticket transaction and the agent remembered the face. The agent remembered that Akin bought the ticket to Long Beach.

A telegram from C. E. Sebastian, chief of police at Los Angeles, saying that Akin refused to come back to Oklahoma without a requisition was received by Governor Cruce. Akin claims that it is a political scheme to subject him to prosecution. The governor also received a telegram from Mrs. Akin asking that the requisition be not issued.

It was understood when Akin left Oklahoma that he went to Indiana, where he had formerly lived. Instead of going there, however, it is said he preferred to go to California where he went to beg his wife over again and make a home for his family.

STUBBLEFIELD PRESIDENT OF BAPTIST CONVENTION

Rev. C. Stubblefield of Ada, who was unanimously elected president of the Oklahoma Baptist Convention is a striking figure among the preachers of the denomination in the state, and is universally beloved by ministers and laymen alike, who delighted to honor him thus.

While Mr. Stubblefield is a very unassuming and modest character, he is of a philosophical turn of mind and this afternoon, when pressed by a News-Herald reporter for an interview, though it was clearly distasteful to him to yield, he did so with good grace.

"I felt the impulse to enter the ministry," said he, "when I lived down at Waco, Texas, more than 40 years ago. I threw it off, however, and continued to resist it for 16 years. To get farther from the influence of this impulse I entered the railroad contracting business which brought me to the Indian Territory. Twenty-five years ago my beloved wife fell critically ill. The doctors gave her up, and said that she was dying. Very sore at heart, I went out of the house and knelt down and prayed. I had lost my former wife by death, and I just told the Lord that if my refusal to answer the call to the ministry was the cause of my great affliction, I would begin preaching at once. I went back into the house, and found that my wife had rallied. From that moment she improved and was soon completely restored to health. That was twenty-five years ago. I have been preaching ever since."

During his twenty five years pastorate, Rev. Stubblefield has had but four charges, Ardmore, Durant, Duncan and Ada. In his career he has never had a single adverse vote cast against him, in each change leaving his church against united demands of his people. Twenty-two years ago he and others organized the state mission board, of which he is chairman, and of which he has been a member since its organization. The first year the board handled $350; the past year it handled $44,000, a marvelous growth.

Rev. Stubblefield has been ably seconded in his great work by his loyal wife, who is known as one of the most beautiful characters in Oklahoma. The distinction of being elected unanimously president of the great Oklahoma Baptist Convention is one that gives as great pleasure if not more, to Mrs. Stubblefield as to her husband.—Shawnee News-Herald.

UNALLOTTED LAND SALE

AT ADA NOV. 29

Oklahoma, Ok., Nov. 11.—One of the biggest land sales ever conducted in Oklahoma will begin next Tuesday at Chickasha and continue in various counties until Dec. 23. Nine hundred thousand acres of unallotted Indian land in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations are to be disposed of at this sale, which will be conducted by the federal government and is the last opportunity offered to purchase Indian lands from the government on a large scale.

When the lands were allotted to Indians of the Five Civilized Tribes of former Indian Territory there was a large residue in each nation that was not taken and this is to be disposed of at the coming sale in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. Some of the land contains valuable timber, but most of it is valuable for agricultural or grazing purposes. Some of the land, of course, is not first-class, but many of the tracts compare favorably with the best land in the communities where located.

The land is located in twenty-two counties, and the portion located in each county is to be sold at public auction at the county seat. The Government reserves the right to reject any bids. No bid can be made for any fractional part or a subdivision of any tract advertised, nor will a bid for the minimum price listed be considered. Not more than 640 acres of land may be sold to any one person including Indian lands he may have bought a previous government sale. Bids of prospective purchasers may be submitted through agents, but such agents must present and file a power of attorney properly executed by the real person interested.

Twenty-five per cent of the amount of the purchase price must be paid at the time the bid is made and the balance bearing 6 per cent interest may be paid as follows: 25 per cent in one year and 50 per cent in two years from date of sale, but the entire amount may be paid at any time.

All bids will be accepted subject to approval by the Secretary of the Interior and upon such approval a certificate of purchase will be issued, which will entitle the purchaser to immediate possession of the land, but the cutting or removal of timber for commercial purposes and mining or drilling for oil or gas is prohibited until after the entire purchase price is paid.

Big Meeting of Minor League Men.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 11.—Representatives of baseball clubs from the Atlantic to the Pacific are rounding up in Milwaukee for the annual meeting to be held tomorrow by the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, which is the governing body for all of the minor organizations. The meeting promises to be one of far more than ordinary importance. The magnates will thoroughly discuss the new national agreement, which must be sent to the National Commission by March 1 for ratification. Salary limits and postseason games will come in for much attention. An element of the minor league representatives, headed by President Neal of the Bluegrass league, will enter a protest against the proposal to tax the draft money in order to provide money for the necessary running expenses of the association. As a side feature of the meeting the managers and club owners are expected to engage in numerous trades. The heads of the twelve clubs comprised in the Central league last year will take advantage of the meeting to complete the organization of the two new leagues into which the old Central is to be divided.

When times are hard it is up to the newspapers to whistle to keep up the courage of their respective communities, even though they are sometimes cursed for putting the best possible appearance on things, but in a time like the present everybody whistles, for there is plenty of inspiration.

It is now certain that for the second time in the history of the state the cotton crop of Oklahoma will pass the million mark. With the high price that has prevailed this year the crop will bring the farmers about $15,000,000 more than the crop of 1911, as the acreage was reduced about 15 percent this year, it is apparent that the difference in acreage was planted in other crops which also yielded well, everything coming the farmers' way this year.

Speaking of the evil living long after its perpetrators, a case in point occurred some four years ago in Kentucky. Although the Democrats had a small majority in the state legislature four disgruntled members of the party joined the Republicans in elect-

The Wedding Ring
There are many people who probably do not know that the wedding ring has not always been a plain circle of gold. In bygone days it was set with rich jewels and worn on the first finger of the right hand.
There is a popular superstition about the wearing of the wedding ring on the third finger, and that is that there is a vein that runs direct from that finger to the heart.
But that is by no means the real reason. It is not one of superstition but one of religion. The minister who performs the service used to put the ring first on the thumb saying: "In the name of the Father;" went on the first finger he said: "And of the Son;" and on the second: "And of the Holy Ghost." Then the amen was reached with the third finger and the ring was put on forever.

Never Too Late to Die.
It's never too late to commit suicide. Mr. Janos Meryess jumped off the suspension bridge at Budapest because at the age of eighty-four he thought he should soon be unable to support his father, who was one hundred and ten years old. Mr. Meryess was pulled from the Danube, more dangerous to him than flowing Hungary Janos, and a public subscription was organized for the three. But in 1892 a Russian, one Mr. Bulan, killed himself at the age of one hundred and six. He left a letter bewailing the stupidity of modern days. The young Roman gentleman of classic times who killed himself because he was tired of doing the same thing did not wait till he was over one hundred to confirm his suspicions, says a Boston Herald writer.

Fell From Performer's Back.
While Karl Richards, aged eighteen years, was clinging to the back of Signor Cameron, a professional wire performer, during a daring glide across Saratoga lake, recently, the youth lost his hold and plunged 125 feet into the lake. The water, fortunately, was deep where Richards fell. He was made unconscious but boats were dispatched to the scene and the youth was rescued from drowning. Cameron has been making exhibitions of crossing the lake and ravine on a wire, hanging to a pulley by his teeth. Richards volunteered to cross with him on his back. The thrilling mishap was witnessed by thousands of persons, some of the women fainting.

The Summer Camp.
Colonel Gifford Hurry, commissary of the National Guard of New York, was condemning an officer who, on an annual encampment, had fussed too much over his men. "A famous editor," he said, "watched this officer one night during the last encampment, as he showed the boys how to fold their clothes, how to spread their bedding, how to wrap themselves in their blankets, how to drape their mosquito netting and so forth; and finally, when the officer took leave, the editor called after him: 'Hey, you've forgotten something.' 'What have I forgotten?' 'You haven't heard 'em say their prayers and kissed 'em all good-night.'"

Jealousy Ended in Murder.
A shocking crime was committed at Bourne End, England, the other day. Dora Hussey, a good-looking girl, about seventeen years of age, employed in a newspaper shop was proceeding from her brother-in-law's house at the close of the day, when she was met by a man to whom it is stated she had been engaged, but with whom some difference had arisen. After a few words, the man is alleged to have fatally cut the girl's throat with a razor, the head being nearly severed from the body. The assailant then turned the weapon upon his own throat.

Horse in Serious Trouble.
An exciting incident occurred at Tweed Dock, Berwick, Scotland, the other day. A horse yoked to a cart was being backed towards the dock side in order to take a load from a ship lying alongside. The animal went a step too far, with the result that the horse and cart fell into the ship. Fortunately the hold was not large enough to admit the cart, but considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the horse ashore. Ropes were tied around the animal's feet, and it was drawn up to the dock side.

New Life-Saving Jacket.
A public test was recently carried out in the Thames, at London, England, of a new life-saving jacket. During the demonstration this apparatus was used by a woman and three men. The garment consists of a loose sack, about the length of an ordinary lounge jacket, having a ribbing fitted with a substance of greater buoyancy than cork. It is so constructed that the heads of the users are completely out of water, thus permitting them to take food while in the water.

Some Task to Count Money.
The task of counting the millions of coins collected for the London hospitals by the ten thousand lady flower-sellers on Alexandra day occupied a staff of 400 men. The collecting boxes filled three large rooms.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR THIS WEEK
Washington, Nov. 10.—Rains in the Pacific states and the extreme Northwest for another day or two and their extension over the central and northern portions of the country by Tuesday are forecast in the weekly bulletin of the Weather Bureau.
"In the Rock Mountain region and the Northwest the rains may change to snow by Tuesday," the bulletin says, "and after that time there will be a marked rise in pressure, accompanied by fair and colder weather, continuing until the end of the week and gradually extending eastward and southeastward, reaching the Middle West by Wednesday or Thursday and the Eastern states toward the close of the week."
"In the South the weather will be fair and warmer in the first half of the week, probably followed by local rains late, with falling temperatures in the West Gulf States."

BENTLEY MAY MOVE TO ADA SOON OVER 7,000 BALES RECEIVED

M. J. Bentley, who for many years has lived near Shawnee, states that it is extremely probable that he will move his family to Ada in the near future and make this their home. Mr. Bentley has extensive interests in this section and takes a most optimistic view of the future of Ada and surrounding country. "This is one of the best towns of Oklahoma," he said, "and is on the soundest base of any. This, to a considerable extent, is due to the cement plant and the men who are behind it."

Mr. Bentley owns the famous Desperado Springs on Blue and in that vicinity the water power is so abundant that it is estimated that 6,000 horsepower can be developed. He has closed a deal to supply 400 horsepower, which will be used at Bromide, and expects to develop more in time and extend the line as far as Durant, supplying smaller towns en route.

Mr. Bentley also confidently believes that it is just a question of time until another railroad will be run from Ada through the country to the south to handle some of the products of that section. With fine glass sand at Bromide, granite, marble, manganese and other minerals in and around Connesville, a road must be built to develop these abundant resources. He will return to Washington in a few weeks to urge upon congress the necessity of passing some Indian legislation that will benefit both the Indians and the whites. It is his opinion that the time has come for the winding up of the agencies with all their red tape and permit the Indians to choose their own agents and handle their tribal affairs without so much cumbersome machinery, and at the same time give the incompetent adequate protection. It will be remembered that at the last session of congress Mr. Bentley appeared in the interests of the Kickapoos who had been defrauded out of much of their holdings and was a star witness in some of the investigations that followed.

The good weather of the past few days together with the high price had the effect of bringing in cotton at an unprecedented rate. At 2:30 this afternoon the yard receipts for the season were 6,414 and the round bale gin had turned out 1,740, equal to 870 square bales, making a total of 7,284 bales. Although Monday is usually a dull day, County Weigher Hill had weighed 144 bales at the hour named. As the gins have considerable seed cotton stored, it is apparent that the $8,000 mark will be passed in a very few days if the weather continues favorable.

This morning cotton reached the high mark of the season, the top price paid being 12.45. In the afternoon, however, it took a sudden slump of 37 points and the price on the streets dropped to 12c.

District Court Hears Motions.

DOGS FOR FARM WORK

AS VALUABLE AS TRUSTY HIRED MEN, SAYS WRITER.

American Agriculturists Have Not Sufficiently Appreciated Their Wonderful Usefulness, Though It Is Recognized in Europe.

In England and Scotland farmers learned long ago the value of dogs to farm work. There the universal custom is to have dogs daily do their part the same as trusty hired men.

Here in America, however, few farmers know the value of a well-trained dog. We are the losers because of this fact. We will learn, of course, in years to come; and working dogs that are a daily help will replace the countless farm help "misfits" now imposing on the farmer's generosity.

It once happened that the owner of some sheep dogs worked them back and forth among flocks of sheep at the same place where many farmers were assembled in convention. The farmers witnessed the work the dogs were doing as the sheep were moved from barns to pasture, through pens, gates and lanes. They were amazed to find them so helpful and wondered at their intelligence. They saw them go quietly around the edges of a pasture and gather in the sheep from far away, while the owner waited at the gate. They saw them herd the sheep along the lanes, doing work two men could not have done. And they profited by what they saw.

They began to believe that the useful dog will eventually be on most American farms, when we get to studying more carefully for ways and means to save work and expense. It may be on some large estates many different men are employed, thereby leaving little opportunity for anyone to train a dog. But on the average farm this is not the case.

Any farmer tired from a hard day's toll would praise the faithful dog that would go the mile or two into the pasture to bring in the cows while he prepared the feed for them.

No reference is made to the dog we find on many farms that knows only enough to run and snap at stock, driving them in whatever direction they care to go. Such a dog is of little value, for he drives the stock away as often as he brings them back to the pen they have left. Such a dog might have developed into a good one. It was the fault of the master that he was never trained. Let no man forget how important it is to have his dog well trained and carefully educated to do his bidding. The green untrained dog is like the unbroken colt or the new hired man. Neither is good as a real helper until taught to do as you wish him to do.—Farm and Fireside.

Why He Was a "Sucker."
William E. Mason of Chicago, at a banquet given to lawyers and politicians, was called upon for a story and told the following:

"A well-known Illinois politician was speaking at the same banquet with a governor of New Jersey some years ago. The Jersey governor went into exhaustive figures as to the wealth, agricultural and manufacturing resources of his own state. In fact, he seemed to lack terminal facilities, for he talked about forty minutes.

"Before he sat down he said: 'I am to be followed by a silver-tongued orator from Illinois, and I hope before he sits down he will tell us why they are called "Suckers."'

"Our friend from Illinois said: 'Mr. Toastmaster, when I heard the description of the agricultural products of New Jersey' I was almost ashamed to come from the corn belt of Illinois, and when he told us of his state's manufactures, it made Illinois look small, but I noticed, Mr. Toastmaster, that you and the gentlemen about you seemed incredulous—in fact, I could tell by your expression that you did not believe a word he said. I want to say to the governor of New Jersey that I believe every word he said, and that is the reason I am called a sucker.'"

Blasting at the Canal.

In the last five years the operations on the Panama canal have required 40,082,850 pounds of dynamite for blasting, or an average of 8,016,570 pounds per year. The estimates for the year ending June 30, 1912, are 8,532,000 and for the 12 months following only 3,986,500. The comparatively small amount for the latter is due to the approaching completion of the excavation work, which will make the total of dynamite used over 52,000,000 pounds. Reckoned by tons, that will be 26,000 tons, which sounds bigger or smaller according to the mind of the person reading it.

For the coming fiscal year the estimated need of other materials for blasting is 328,000 blasting caps, 1,844 pounds of insulated tape, 10,000 feet of connecting wire, 555,300 feet of lead wire, 627,700 feet of electric fuses, 36,000 feet of triple tape fuse.

Overfeeding.

A lot of people eat too much and a lot more don't eat enough. Some stuff till there isn't room for another swallow and then eat some more in between and then kick that they haven't enough. There are those whose earnings just spill over in a thimble, but who expect results as if their weekly check covered all Manhattan. A good rule is to leave off eating while there's still room for more, and fill it up the next time.—New York Press.

AN OPEN FALL

Owing to our open Fall a great many of us have neglected to get that new suit we have been promising ourselves, and now old man Winter is upon us, and the worst of it is that he gave us no warning that he was coming until he was here and now we are sore at the world because we are cold, but brace up, for it is not to late, yet, for you still have time to give us that order and we will get it out in record time, so you see there is no reason why you should freeze after all.

Remember that we make your suit right here in our shop that it does not have to go out of town to be made and that you can come in and watch it through every stage of construction.

Your suit should be built just as careful as your home and you should be just as much interested in its construction. You watch the construction of your home because you are going to live in it; because you want it built strong and lasting; because you want it to be of a pleasing appearance and because you want it built according to your style. You should be interested in the building of your suit, because you are going to live in it; you want it built strong and lasting; you want it to be of nice appearance and because you want it built according to your style.

Paying Election Bets.

H. B. Roach was at Centrahoma Saturday and reports a laughable celebration of the election carried out by losers of election bets. Mr. Roach painted a banner for the parade on which was printed the words: "We Won With Wilson."

A man led the parade with this. Next came one leading a flop eared donkey, followed by a loser playing a home made fiddle which he had lost to Jesse Bunch. Next came Bunch himself riding in a wheel barrow pushed by another loser, while in the rear came one on all fours followed closely by a man who had instructions to hasten his movements with a liberal application of sole leather if he was inclined to fall behind. Word of the fun had been spread broadcast and as a result the whole country was on hand to see the show.

Coal County to Have Big Fair.

Coalgate, Okla., Nov. 11.—The Farmer's Institute of Coal county will hold a county meetinf in Coalgate Saturday, November 30, for the purpose of arranging for the county fair for next fall. The fair this year was a great inspiration to the farmers and now they are going to begin in time to prepare for one of the best county fairs in Oklahoma. The commercial club of Coalgate is working with the farmers and putting up money in order to make the proposition a success. The farmers of Coal county are very much interested in improved stock and farm seeds.

WORK ON FRISCO

DEPOT PROGRESSING

The new Frisco depot is coming along nicely. The force of men employed in the work was busy today preparing the forms for pouring the concrete and as plenty of material is on the ground, the walls will soon begin rising rapidly. The Frisco will then make other improvements in the yards and be in a position to handle its heavy business at Ada in a more expeditious manner than heretofore. One important part of the work will be providing adequate quarters for the office.

CHOLERA SPREADING IN TURKISH RANKS

Constantinople, Nov. 11.—The outbreak of cholera is assuming serious proportions. Twenty-three cases had occurred among the troops along the Tchatalja lines up to Wednesday. There are many more suspected cases among the wounded. A train load of wounded has just reached here, eight of the soldiers having died on the way, presumably of cholera.

The disease is getting a firmer hold on account of the massing of troops the lack of proper food and the complete absence of sanitary arrangements. The danger to Constantinople is great on account of the influx of refugees. Already several suspected cases among the latter have been reported. The authorities are preparing a special quarantine hospital with 400 beds at Sirkeji.

The frequent visits of the Austrian Ambassador, Marquis de Pallavicini, to the Porte are attracting attention. Yesterday he visited the Foreign Minister. According to the Turkish newspaper, Ikdam, he declared that, in view of the phase which the Balkan situation has entered the interests of Austria and Turkey have become identical.

The authorities permit only three newspapers to be published. One of these says that differences have arisen among the Powers and argues that if Turkey profits by this precious time and inflicts some defeats on her enemies, the proposals of the triple entente will lose their importance.

According to advices from Adrianople, the bombardment continues. The Turks are now using aeroplanes. The Vail has gone into the fighting lines, and an attack by the Bulgarians Friday night was repulsed with heavy losses.

TRIED TO INTIMIDATE

Election Officers Receive Anonymous Circular Designed to Bluff Them.

About the most vicious scheme of intimidation discovered lately is a threat mailed out to election officials a few days before election. It amounted to nothing more than an attempt to coerce them into ignoring the grandfather clause. A number of election officers in Pontotoc county brought in their copies of this remarkable document which is given below. From the union label it was evidently printed at Oklahoma City, but all received in this county bore the Ada postmark. There was nothing by which the sender could be identified, he well knowing that the consequences of attempting to bluff election officers might not be pleasant. It is probable that the same plan was resorted to in every part of the state in the endeavor to get in a few more negro votes. Here is the full text of this remarkable document:

"Talk it over with your wife, Mr. Election Official! And remember that you will go to the penitentiary if you violate the Federal Election Laws, and not Governor Cruce nor his brother, Attorney A. C. Cruce. You will remember that the latter defended Beall and Quinn, who last year were convicted in the United States Court at Enid and sentenced to the penitentiary for violating the Federal Election Law and the state paid the attorneys in these cases about $14,000 for defending these two men. This averages about $7,000 per case. It is not likely that the people of this state, already overburdened with taxes, will be willing to continue to pay out $7,000 every time an election official violates the Federal Statutes. The people are not sufficiently anxious to enrich the governor's brother, Attorney A. C. Cruce. Besides, what's the use? Where conviction is sure, there is nothing gained by paying out big sums of money for attorney fees. That is to say, there is nothing gained by anyone but the attorney.

The quail and deer season will open Friday and already hunters are heading for the Kiamichis. This morning a large party composed of M. M. YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

OBEDIENT TO NATURE'S LAW

Constant Change Goes On, But Americans are becoming degenerate and are bound to die out, a complaint also made by the English concerning themselves, is advanced by Lieut. Col. Charles E. Woodruff, Medical corps, U. S. Army, who is now stationed in the Philippines.

"There is no ground for such absurd pessimism," says Woodruff, "though as a matter of fact there is plenty of evidence that certain types in each nation (British and American) do have a higher death rate than others and that there is a constant slow change in the general average. Both civilizations have been built up by immigrants and it is a law of nature that change of racial residence is always followed by extinction or alteration of type through the survival of the fittest for the new environment.

"Moreover, there has been a constant immigration into the British islands from the beginning of things human, and the influx of new blood has always kept civilization humming, even if each invasion in olden times did destroy part of what it found. The same phenomenon is being repeated in America with the sole difference that the invaders, except in Mexico and Peru, have not destroyed, but are constantly building up. The process of decay of certain types is also quicker in America and the new blood comes into prominence sooner than in England.

"Very few of the descendants of the signers of our Declaration of Independence are in public life and most of them are nonentities, while immigrants and sons of immigrants are in the seats of the mighty. The descendants of the signers of Magna Charta controlled England for many centuries, though none of that stock is in evidence now, while the present controlling elements date back some centuries and very few are recent arrivals from the continent.

"It is high time that we find out who are the fittest in each part of America. Every bit of evidence is of some value and that is the reason why the tremendous victories of the American Olympic athletes have such a scientific and popular interest."

Puritan Verse.

Among the offenses of the Puritans, for the most part left behind them when they came to this country, was that of turning bits of the Bible and parts of the New Testament into English verse. They were much given to the printing of obnoxious and defamatory pamphlets, for which from time to time a scribbling offender would not find repose at "mine inn," but in the stocks to the amusement of all the idlers of the town.

It was soon after the Reformation that this spirit of versifying the Psalms and other parts of Scripture began, and most of the collections published with quaint titles are now worth several times their weight in gold to gatherers of curios. Alliteration's artful aid was much in evidence in such titles as "Seven Sobs of a Sorrowful Soul for Sin," which comprised the seven penitential Psalms in meter, and a "Handful of Honey-suckles," in which were collated various blessings out of the book of Deuteronomy. William Hunnis, chapel master to Queen Elizabeth, turned the entire book of Genesis into rhyme under the title of "A Hivell of Honey," and Christopher Tye, a contemporary of Hunnis, rendered the Acts of the Apostles in English verse. But these were before the Puritans, the chief offenders, especially in pamphlets, had arrived.

Depraved Benevolence.

"One of the queerest old human freaks in New York shows up around the police station whenever there is a report of runaway boys in town," said a policeman. "His purpose would not be exactly approved by the Bible societies. He does not want to lecture the boys or send them home or improve their morals in any way. He simply wants to gratify their thwarted ambition and show them Coney Island and the Bowery before they are yanked back home by angry parents. That is what most of them run away for—to see Coney Island and the Bowery—and this old codger argues that any boy who has grit enough to stand the hardships of a stolen ride to New York ought to be allowed to see those places. His benevolence isn't all wind, either. He is willing to foot the bills if the boys will be allowed to go; but very few of them are. That is what breaks the old gentleman's heart. He lays aside a small sum of money each year for this peculiar charity."

Short-Change Dog.

Charley Ellison is up on horses, but was not up on dogs. At one time in Hot Springs he paid for a bird dog, partly through a fanciful notion and partly because the dog was a handsome animal. He sought the seller the next day and said:

"I thought you claimed this was a bird dog. He was gone for three hours yesterday and didn't bring back a single bird."

Passing up the hunters and going in for trick animals, Ellison had a dog to which he would give a smell of a $5 bill and later sent it to bring the money home. A visiting horseman located the plant before the dog did and substituted a $1 bill. When the retriever showed up, Ellison said:

"Prince, what have you done with the other $4?"—Chicago Evening Post.

BOGGAN-CHARLTON

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Mr. Albert T. Boggan of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Maida Charlton were married at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Roberts of Roff, officiating. They left on the 10:30 Frisco train for Pawnee, where they will make their home temporarily, going from there to Texas in a short time.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, and was attended only by the following intimate friends of the contracting parties: Misses Minnie Lou Hill, Birdie Roberts and Messrs. Howard H. Lumsden of Memphis and John Chauncey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Charlton and one of Ada's most estimable young ladies. She possesses all the womanly qualities that one admires most and the groom is indeed a most fortunate young man in winning the heart of such a lady.

The groom is a traveling salesman for the American Tobacco Co. and bears a most excellent reputation.

American Federation of Labor.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 11.—The thirty-third annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, which was opened in this city today, and which will continue probably for two weeks or longer, got into working order before an adjournment was taken this afternoon. More than half a thousand delegates, representing the leading labor bodies of the country, were in their seats when the gathering was called to order by President Samuel Gompers. After the exchange of greetings and the appointment of committees the convention listened to the annual reports of the several officers and the executive committee, which reviewed the activities of organized labor for the entire year and dealt specifically with the great textile strike at Lawrence, the propaganda of the Industrial Workers of the World, the relation of the national political campaign to the interests of the working classes and numerous legislative matters of interest to labor.

Southern Women to Meet.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—An unusually large attendance is promised at the nineteenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which will hold a four-day meeting here this week. Especial interest attaches to the convention from the fact that it will be the first that the society has ever held north of Mason and Dixon's line. The opening session will be held tomorrow morning in Cincinnati Memorial Hall. In the afternoon the delegates will go to Arlington to attend the laying of the corner stone for the Confederate monument there. President Taft will receive the delegates at the White House on Thursday. The next day the Maryland Daughters will entertain the visitors at Annapolis.

Classified Advertising Divides This Paper's Readers Into Four Different Groups!

One group of readers will read all of the Situations, Wanted Ads—because every person in that group is looking for a worker!

A second group of readers will read all of the Furnished Rooms To Let Ads—because every person in the group is looking for a furnished room.

A third group will read all of the Real Estate Ads—because every person in the group is a prospective buyer of real estate.

A fourth group will read all of the Business Opportunity Ads—because this group consists of people who MAKE THEIR MONEY WORK FOR THEM—and who are ALWAYS looking for GOOD JOBS FOR DOLLARS!

Thus every classification draws to itself a group of readers influenced by self-interests to everyone of whom that classification of ads means PERSONAL OPPORTUNITIES.

Your classified ad, therefore, has an audience awaiting it—an audience of alert people, anxious to consider your offer or your want, and to do business with you if your proposition is plausible.
